T.H.S. Why did you join Sabbath then?
 R.D. "Well, Tony and I sat down together with ideas, and we hit it off immediately. I write the lyrics and he writes the music. It was like the beginnings of Rainbow again."
 T.H.S. What does your hand signal mean, on stage?
 R.D. "That's an ancient symbol to ward off evil. I wear one round my neck, too."

Then I was accosted by Geezer Butler who was showing everybody the bruise on his broken third finger (left hand). I asked him how he broke it: "I was practising Kung Fu and someone's face hit my hand. It's very annoying, I can't bend it." He proceeded to show it to me again along with a large blister on the middle finger of his right hand.

I then went off to find Tony Iommi while he went off looking for somebody else to show his injuries to.
