

CROALBEAT

A LOOK AT LOCAL MUSIC NEWS.

A PENCIL have added keyboardist, "Gregory" (ex Jazz Fusion) to their line up and are touring with Here & Now around the country. They are also bringing out a tape with about four tracks on it, including "Advertiser" and "Stranger in my House". It was recorded at Jamm Studios and should be out by the end of October costing around £1.

FASHIONS OF FATE have acquired a new guitarist, Andrew Dakeyne, and have just recorded a demo featuring "Tribal Set", "Curse", "My friend, you're dead" and "Message from the Dead."

Rivington Spyke, along with the help of Mike Walsh, is hoping to bring out a cassette featuring clips of him playing live and of an interview on Radio Piccadilly. It will be probably called "The Man Behind The Sneer".

A new album on Heavy Metal Records entitled "Heavy Metal Heroes" has recently been released featuring tracks by, amongst others, Twisted Ace and Buffalo.

THE BURNING QUESTION AT THE MOMENT SEEMS TO BE "WILL ROCK DISCOS IN THE CELLAR FINISH?" WHEN WE RANG UP THE MANAGER, WE WERE TOLD DEFINITELY NOT. HOWEVER, IF HE FINDS THE CELLAR 1/2 EMPTY, THE DANGER OF IT BECOMING A RESTAURANT IS LURKING... SO GET DOWN THERE!

SOUNDS PLAYLIST
Geoff Barron
HEAVY METAL HEROES. Various Artists, Heavy Metal Records
RESCUE ME. Yeti, A&M album track
GOOD MORNING. Blackfoot. Ace

Commendations to Mike Walsh for work done promoting Bolton's music scene with gigs at the Gaiety on Bradshawgate. After persevering even when nobody turned up, the venue finally got what it deserved; a packed room for the return visit of J.G.Spoils on the 17th of September. Accompanied by a Rivington Spyke Disco, the Gaiety is now probably the best place in central Bolton for seeing local bands with groups ranging from Capsule Electric to Cliché.

Another venue for live bands in Bolton has appeared in the shape of The Lower Nags Head. Groups can be seen on certain Fridays and so far, THE AUTOZE are booked to appear from the 9th to the 23rd Oct.

TWISTED ACE will be bringing out a single featuring "I Won't Surrender" and "Firebird."

Jamm Studios have started selling "I'm a Jammer" badges and are available for 25p from the studios at Flash Mills.

Paul Anderson, drummer with Peruvian Drumstix, has issued a challenge to Ben Jackson, drummer with The Reporters. When using Ben's kit in a double-bill at the Aquarius, Paul wasn't too impressed (ie he hated it) and now whenever he sees it again, he has a habit of giving it a vicious stare.

Speaking of Peruvian Drumstix, they are looking for another new bassist. Anyone interested in joining a new wave/R'n'B band, ring Andy on Bolton 47340.

WRATHCHILD have split and half of them have gone into cabaret but theres a possibility they might go back into rock when Any kaye gets back from the US of A.